The Additional DIGP Group Centre, Central Reserve Police Force, Rangareddy has informed to verify the Yanadi (ST) caste certificate of Sri K. Rana Pratap who was appointed in Central Reserve Police Force as CT/GD in ST category on the basis of the certificate issued by the then Mandal Revenue Officer, Guntur.

The matter was referred to the Revenue Divisional Officer, Guntur to enquire into the matter and to send the enquiry report. The Tahsildar, Guntur has enquired into the matter and submitted a report in Rc. 343/09/Typist, dated 24-3-2009 that the M.R.I., Guntur who enquired into the matter reported that Sri Raghava Rao is a Regired Head Constable in the Railway Protection Force. His wife is Eswaramma. They have one son and daughter. They belong to Rajaka (BC-A) by caste. Later Sri Raghava Rao developed illegal connection with Pullamma, Yanadi (ST) by caste. They were blessed with a male child by name Ranapratap. After one year Pullamma left the child and Raghava Rao and she did not return back. Sri Rana Pratap was brought up under the care of Raghava Rao and Eswaramma, who is his stepmother. The entire traditions and customs of Ranapratap are of Rajaka Community only. The children of the first wife of Raghava Rao also belong to Rajaka community. As per the statement of Ranapratap's step-mother, the mother of Ranapratap i.e., Pullamma is said to belong to Yanadi (ST) Caste and due to that his caste was recorded as Yanadi (ST) caste in his school records. The Tahsildar finally reported that Sri Raghava Rao, father of Rana Pratap belongs to Rajaka (BC-A) Caste and their entire family also belongs to Rajaka community. Moreover Sri Ranapratap is also with his family from his childhood, hence he may be treated as Rajaka (BC) caste but not as Yanadi (ST) Caste.

The matter was informed to the Additional DIGP Group centre, Central Reserve Police Force, Rangareddy in this office Rc. 788/07/C4, dated 1-4-2009 and action was taken to place the case before the DLSC to enquire and take up cancellation of the caste certificate of K. Rana Pratap as per instructions of the Collector, Guntur.

Accordingly, a notice was issued to K. Rana Pratap to attend before the District Level Scrutiny Committee for enquiry on 9-6-2009. Smt. K. Vijayalakshmi, W/o Rana Pratap and Sri K. Raghava Rao attended the meeting on 9-6-2009 and their statement were recorded. Smt. Vijayalakshmi stated that she is the wife of Rana Pratap and that her husband left to his working place in J & K one week back where he is working as constable in CRPF. She stated that her father-in-law told her that her husband is the son of his second wife, Pullamma, who belongs to Yanadi community and that she had left them when her busband was a child and stated that she didn't see her. She also stated that she belongs to BC community and their was a love marrage without the knowledge of their elders, later he got appointment and working since ten years and at present he was stationed at 140 Bn. at Banthalab in Jammu. She also stated that her father-in-law Raghava Rao, his wife, Eswaramma, and his sons, Srinivasa Rao and Ramanaji belong to Rajaka BC only; that she had two boys and that she is not having any documentary evidence relating to her husband's caste.

Sri Kollur Raghava Rao, father of the condidate stated that he retired as constable in RPF and at present residing in Sivanagaraja colony. His wife is Eswaramma. They have one son and daughter. They belong to Rajaka (BC-A) by caste that Sri Raghava Rao had illegal relations with Pullamma, Yanadi (ST) by caste. They were blessed with a male child by name Rana Pratap. After one year Pullamma left the child and Raghava Rao, and she did not return back. Sri Rana Pratap was brought up under care of Raghava Rao and Eswaramma who is his stepmother. The entire traditions and customs of Ranapratap are of Rajaka Community only. Later he learnt about his mother and her caste and obtained Yanadi caste certificate from the Mandal Revenue Officer, Guntur. Later he got employment and married Vijayalakshmi through love marriage. She is living separately with her two children while her husband is working in J & K. His father also stated that he is not having any documentary evidence relating to the caste of his son and that the children of the first wife of Raghava Rao also belong to Rajaka community.

The candidate attended the DLSC on 25-8-2009 and his statement was recorded. He stated that he was working as constable in CRPF from July 2000 and his father, Kollur Raghava Rao worked as constable in RPF. He got acquainted with his mother, Pullamma while he was working in Bitragunta. He was already married at that time to Eswaramma and has one boy and a girl at that time and he was born in 1977. His mother Pullamma lived separately and his father told him that she left the place when he was three or four years old and never returned. He was brought up by his father only and not by Eswaramma. He lived with their family until he was fifteen years old. Later after finishing Tenth class he lived separately. After retirement of his father in 1996 they came to Guntur and he is living separately since then because his father's family treated him with discrimination.

He has his primary education in Railway Elementary School in Bitragunta with his caste mentioned as Rajaka. Later he studied 6th to 10th class in K\asu Sayamma Mpol. High School with ST as his caste. |He studied 10th class privately.As his father told him that his mother belongs to Yanadi caste he obtained caste certificate as Yanadi from the MRO., Guntur. He further stated that he has no documentary evidence relating to his mother's caste and requested for some time to gather evidenc e at Bitragunta as directed by the committee andstated that his caste certificate may be cancelled if he did not submit the same. He further stated that his wife belongs to Padmasali (BC) caste and it was a love marriage. He informed that he has two sons. Revanth, 10 years and Gandhi, 8 years old and that they were studying in Municipal Elementary School in Abyudayanagar, 1st line and their caste was mentioned as Rajaka as he thought that they should not face the problems faced by him and requested that he may be treated as ST (Yanadi) as his mother belongs to that caste. When directed to prove the caste of his mother through any relevant documents, he requested time to obtain and submit the same but did not turn up again even after several notices to attend the meetings on 22-9-2009, 20-11-2009, 12-1-2010 and a final notice was also sent to him that action would be taken to cancel the ST (Yanadi) caste certificate issued to him as per evidence available on records if he did not attend the meeting on 1-5-2010. But he did not attend the meeting on the date. A notce to the individual and letter to the concerned officers and to the Commandant, CRPF, Tripura were sent to attend the meeting on 8-7-2010. The Commandant, 140 Bn. CRPF,Tripura has informed that it will take 4 to 5 days to reach Guntur and Postal dak including speed post are received only after 15 days and rerquested that the date of the next meeting may be intimated well in advance to enable their office to send the individual in time. The Joint Collector & the Chairman of the DLSC has agreed and gave the date for the meeting on 24-8-2010 and the letter was dispatched on 29-7-2010. Despite a number of intimations given to the individual to attend the meetings to prove his claim, he failed to attend the meeting with any evidence relating to his caste claim and his mother's caste status.

The District Level Scrutiny Committee has given him many opportunities to prove his caste claim. But he failed to do so except producing the school record in which his caste was recorded as ST Yanadi. In view of the above and feeling that it is not fair on the part of the committee to continue the case indefinitely it was concluded by the DLSC members that the ST Yanadi claim of the individual could not be proved and the ST Yanadi caste certificate obtained by him from the Mandal Revenue Officer, Guntur, dated 8-10-1997 is liable to be cancelled and the same may be intimated to the Commandant, 140 Bn., CRPF,Tripura.

Agreeing with the recommendations of the District Level Scrutiny Committee, a notice was issued by the Collector as to why the YANADI (ST) Caste certificate issued to Kollur Rana Pratap, S/o Raghava Rao by the Tahsildar, Guntur, dated 8-10-1997 should not be cancelled, basing on the recommendations of the District Level Scrutiny Committee. But the individual did not submit any explanation to the final notice.

After going through the entire record and explanation offered by the individual, it was concluded that the recommendations of the DLSC on canceling the Yanadi (ST|) caste certificate issued to Sri Kollur

Rana Pratap, S/o Raghava Rao by the Tahasildar, Guntur, dated 8-10-1997 may be considered and the ST Yanadi caste needs to be cancelled.

In view of the above, I, V.N. Vishnu, I.A.S., Collector & District Magistrate, Guntur, in exercise of the powers conferred by the Government under Section 5(1) of the A.P., (SC, ST & BCs) Regulation of Issue of Community Certificates Act, 16 of 1993 read with Rule 9(7) of AP (SC, ST & BC) issue of Community, Nativity and Date of Birth Certificate Rules, 1997, communicated in G.
